

KUDOS

The RBC Royal Bank's Suzanne Rutherford, 2005 Ride chairwoman, and Sandy Whalley, Ride team coordinator, with the Ride Corporate Spirit Cup.

Continued from F5

to the Delta Hospital Foundation as host sponsors for the recent Moonlight Gala. More than $125,000 was raised toward the construction of the expanded ER and improved surgical daycare unit.

The Pan Pacific Vancouver and partners Global TV, Jack FM, the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau, Re/Max and Vancouver Fire Fighters Union, Local 18 collected 15,000 toys for needy families at the recent Pan Pacific Christmas Wish Breakfast.

The Crossroads Hospice Society received $5,000 from RBC Financial Group, bringing its sponsorship total of Crossroads Inlet Centre Hospice to $55,000.

The Motion Picture Production Industry Association of B.C. contributed $10,000 to Projections, a film and video mentoring program for youth at risk in Vancouver. It is a project of the PHS Community Services Society.

RBC Royal Bank won the Ride Corporate Spirit Cup from the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. The cup is awarded annually to the company that raises the most money at Vancouver's Ride for Diabetes Research. At this year's ride, 260 RBC employees raised $69,000.

Pan Pacific Christmas Wish Breakfast partners Chris McNeill of Re/Max Colonial Pacific Realty, Chris Bayliss of the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau, Rena Heer of Global TV, Larry Hennessey of JACK FM, Steve Darling of Global, Steve Halliday of the Pan Pacific Vancouver, Willy Percy of JACK FM, Zack Spencer and Heather Knittel of Global, Steve Burk of Re/Max and Stephen Peters of the Pan Pacific with toys collected at the recent event.

Concert Properties presented $39,000, raised in its annual golf tournament, to the BCIT

Foundation. The money will be added to the company's endowment fund for students in eligible trades and technology programs related to the construction industry.

See Wednesday's paper for more Kudos announcements.

Stuart Mitchell on pony Obi, with (from left) Chrissy Lefave, Margaret Rigby, Helen Windsor of the Valley Therapeutic Equestrian Assoc. and Trena Janzen and Stacey Ellis of the RBC Foundation.